Viewing cable 06MADRID1861, SPAIN WITH EU CONSENSUS ON NICARAGUA ELECTION

If you are new to these pages, please read an introduction on the structure of a cable as well as how to discuss them with others. See also the FAQs

Understanding cables

Every cable message consists of three parts:

- The top box shows each cables unique reference number, when and by whom it originally was sent, and what its initial classification was.
- The middle box contains the header information that is associated with the cable. It includes information about the receiver(s) as well as a general subject.
- The bottom box presents the body of the cable. The opening can contain a more specific subject, references to other cables (browse by origin to find them) or additional comment. This is followed by the main contents of the cable: a summary, a collection of specific topics and a comment section.

To understand the justification used for the classification of each cable, please use this WikiSource article as reference.

Discussing cables

If you find meaningful or important information in a cable, please link directly to its unique reference number. Linking to a specific paragraph in the body of a cable is also possible by copying the appropriate link (to be found at the paragraph symbol). Please mark messages for social networking services like Twitter with the hash tags #cablegate and a hash containing the reference ID e.g. #06MADRID1861.

SUBJECT: SPAIN WITH EU CONSENSUS ON NICARAGUA ELECTION
STATEMENT

REF: SECSTATE 114848

Classified By: PolCouns Kathy Fitzpatrick for reasons
1.4 (b) & (d).

(C/NF) Poloff discussed reftel demarche with MFA deputy DG for Mexico, Central America, and Caribbean Carmen Diez on July 18. Diez accepted the demarche points, but was unaware of the draft statement. After reviewing the situation with the Spanish embassy in Managua, she said that Spain would stick with the EU consensus on this issue. Diez said that Spain is committed to supporting democracy in Latin America and to making the upcoming Nicaraguan elections successful. She said, however, that the EU members have agreed that it is too early to issue such a statement. Spain prefers to take a lower profile for now, waiting to see what happens and avoiding "excessively public" involvement like the draft statement.
